The Single Parent Employment Initiative (SPEI) is the focus of this program. It aims to help single parents find employment and provide support. Here are some key points:

- Program: The Single Parent Employment Initiative (SPEI)
- Website: bcapop.ca
- Contact: 604-684-2561

Key Features:

- Help single parents find employment
- Support in career development
- Assistance with education
- Financial aid
- Child care support

In addition, they offer services such as:

- Child care assistance
- Financial counseling
- Employment training
- Education programs

They also have partnerships with organizations like

- Immigrant Services Society of BC
- Parent Support Services Society of BC
- B.C. Association of Pregnancy Outreach Programs
- Aboriginal Friendship Centres

These programs are supported by various organizations and provide a range of services to help single parents succeed in the workforce.